

State Representative Kurt A. Masser invites you to his

CONCEALED CARRY SEMINAR

Providing education to interested residents about
Pennsylvania's firearms and self-defense laws.

Thursday, Aug. 24, from 6-8 p.m.
Brady Fire Company Banquet Hall
700 Maple St., Ranshaw

Featuring Northumberland County
District Attorney Tony Matulewicz and Sheriff Robert Wolfe.

Due to space limitations, those planning to attend are required to RSVP in advance by calling 570-275-3700 or 570-648-8017.

THERE IS NO FEE TO ATTEND.

The presentations will include details about PA's concealed carry laws, as well as the Castle Doctrine – a legal principle stating that if an attacker or intruder in one's legally occupied home or vehicle intends to do great bodily harm, lethal force may be used to protect oneself and others. The Castle Doctrine has been law in Pennsylvania since 2011.
